

Esta Soler receives Highest Honor from UCSF

[November 14, 2016 – San Francisco, CA] – Esta Soler, Founder and President of Futures Without Violence, has received one of three annual UCSF Medals – the highest honor awarded by the University of California, San Francisco – for the impact of her leadership as one of the nation’s leading violence prevention advocates and social activists. This video celebrates Future Without Violence’s work, under Esta’s leadership, over the last 30+ years making homes and communities safer for women, children and families.

