

Call for Applicants for NCADV Board of Directors

NCADV is currently accepting board applications through September 15th. The vision of NCADV is to create a culture where domestic violence is not tolerated; and where society empowers victims and survivors and holds abusers accountable.

NCADV is working to be the voice of victims and survivors. We are the catalyst for changing society to have zero tolerance for domestic violence. We do this by affecting public policy, increasing understanding of the impact of domestic violence, and providing programs and education that drive change.

We seek board members who will assist us in continuing and expanding the work of being the voice for victims and survivors begun in 1978 by NCADV. Board members must work to assist NCADV in collaborating with policy makers, federal, state and local governments, non-profit organizations, partners, and other advocates to affect public policy that empowers victims and survivors and holds abusers accountable.

Prospective board members must be committed to NCADV's programs and services for victims and survivors of domestic violence and be focused on our constituents needs addressing the physical, emotional, and life impacts of domestic violence
