

TAKE ACTION!

NATIONAL NETWORK
TO END DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

December 18, 2015

Dear Advocate,

Your advocacy worked! We asked you to call Congress to protect funding for domestic violence survivors. You responded with thousands of calls, emails and tweets.

As a direct result of your advocacy, today Congress has passed a funding bill, on its way to the President that includes record funding to address and prevent domestic and sexual violence.

We also asked you to make calls on vital tax credits that provide important financial help to survivors and their children. Today, Congress passed a bill that preserved those crucial credits!

Thank you! Thank you! Thank you! Thank you for standing up for survivors. Thank you for using your voice to end violence against women.

We spoke up and Congress listened. Please click to email and thank your Members of Congress today.

Again, thank you for standing with survivors each and every time we have called upon you to act. Your voices matter. They make a difference. Survivors are safer because of you. Thank you!
