

Donate Now to Support Victims & Programs Impacted by Hurricane Harvey

The full impact of Hurricane Harvey's devastation has yet to be determined. As we speak, our partners at the Texas Association Against Assault, local programs and shelters are assessing the storm's impact on survivor's, program staff, and facilities.

Here's what they've found so far: Several facilities - some which offer supportive housing - have been damaged in the floods, while others have lost power and running water. Survivors staying at damaged shelters are being relocated to secure areas by staff members. For many programs serving sexual assault survivors, the damage is still unknown. Also unknown is the impact the hurricane has had on the homes of program staff.

In response to these devastating events, we're calling on you to donate to the National Relief Fund for Sexual Assault Victims. 100% of your gift helps sexual assault victims in disaster impacted areas. Over the coming days, we expect an increase in requests from Hurricane impacted individuals and programs for relief funds. Now is the time to show your support for survivors by donating.

About the Fund

The Relief Fund for Sexual Assault Victims collects donations to address the needs of sexual assault survivors during and after disasters in the U.S.

NSVRC and other national partners created the Relief Fund to:

- Support relocation/rebuilding efforts for damaged advocacy programs
- Support the needs of sexual assault survivors and advocacy program staff
- Aid with expanded direct service needs
- Assist with prevention initiatives to protect evacuees from sexual violence

NSVRC donates administrative costs of the fund - 100% of donations go to victims and programs in disaster affected areas.
