A NEW resource for MILITARY victims of sexual assault

Also ideal for military and civilian professionals working with military victims

Coping with Sexual Assault:

A Resource Guide and Overview of SAPR Policies for Military Victims

This comprehensive booklet for victims of sexual assault in the military addresses:

- ◆ The recovery process and aftermath of a sexual assault
- ◆ Common medical concerns and the evidence collection exam
- ◆ The reporting options, including exceptions to confidentiality
- ◆ The military criminal justice process and victims' rights
- ◆ Up-to-date information on DoD SAPR policies and resources
- ◆ Plus, information on the civilian criminal justice system and resources

The original booklet for sexual assault victims was reviewed by a national advisory board of experts in the sexual assault field along with input from survivors. We are confident you will find these booklets to be one of the BEST resources currently available because they were developed specifically with sexual assault survivors in mind and include the most recent information available on DoD's SAPR Policies.

PLUS---THREE OPTIONS TO CUSTOMIZE YOUR BOOKLETS! (for orders of 200+)

1. Include your program's name, address, phone and website printed on the back cover (for a one time $25 type set fee for the entire order)
2. Choose the cover color of your choice at no additional cost on orders of 200+ in the same title
3. CUSTOMIZE WITH YOUR OWN ADDITIONAL CONTENT--If you want more specific information about your organization printed INSIDE the booklets (e.g. additional contact numbers, policy/program information, etc.) you can further customize the booklets with any information you submit to us. Your information will be printed at the end of the booklets for a nominal one-time typeset fee of $100 per page. This is a one-time fee for your entire order, regardless of how many booklets you purchase. All copy is pre-approved by you BEFORE printing to ensure you receive EXACTLY what you want.
