

The National Coalition Against Domestic Violence Partners With Legendary Soul Icon Betty Wright and The Give Back Foundation

February 11, 2011

Betty Wright

Betty Wright's 2011 Grammy nominated single, "Go!," delivers a powerful message against domestic violence, but her fight against abuse doesn't rely on words alone. Betty, together with GiveBack.org, a site that allows users to create a personalized charity foundation, is encouraging her fans to do their part in the battle against domestic violence and abuse.

NCADV is one of Betty's favorite charities and is asking you to support our organization by donation through GiveBack.org

Visit her GiveBack page: <https://www.giveback.org/pages/bettywright/bettywright.aspx>

And be sure to watch the Grammy's Sunday night (Feb. 13th, CBS, 8:00 pm EST) to hopefully see Betty Wright win the best traditional R&B vocal performance.
