Cultural Competency, Sensitivities and Allies Training

August 5-7, 2009

Tucson, Arizona

The Women of Color Network (WOCN), in partnership with the Office on Violence Against Women (OVW), will conduct a Cultural Competency, Sensitivities and Allies Training this summer. The training will be held on August 5-7, 2009, in Tucson, Arizona.

This training is intended for MAINSTREAM ADVOCATES including men and women of majority populations who are seeking to serve as allies to Communities of Color, Women, LGBTQ, Elder, Native, Immigrants and Refugees populations.

WOCN is pleased to announce that we will pay travel and lodging for 10 NON-OVW FUNDED MAINSTREAM ADVOCATES, to join 40 MAINSTREAM OVW GRANTEES who receive training funds and are responsible for their own travel and lodging.

If you are interested in attending, please go to the registration links below.

- If you are a MAINSTREAM OVW GRANTEE or work for an OVW funded program, you can apply with the following registration form - please read instructions carefully: <http://pubs.pcadv.net/wocn/ovwallycultcomp.pdf>
- If you are a NON-OVW FUNDED MAINSTREAM ADVOCATE, you can apply with the following registration form - please read instructions and criteria carefully: <http://pubs.pcadv.net/wocn/nonovwcultcomp.pdf>

Please note – No more than 2 persons per program may attend.

We look forward to receiving your participation! Contact Jody Rogers at jr@pcadv.org or 800-537-2238 with any questions.

In solidarity,

Women of Color Network
